

Corporate interests are undermining the very root of our American democracy and our way of life. Be vigilant in protecting public interests and not corporate interests. Preserve our freedom wherever and whenever possible.